

Books Are Out Of This World!

Bartholomew County Public Library Winter Reading Club 2010

Leave the cold of January and February behind and join the library for a stellar good time! We have space themed prizes, good eats, and some out of this world programs. The Children's Area Winter Reading Club is for anyone 12 and under. The Adult Winter Reading Club is for anyone 18 or over. Or, if you are between the ages of 13 and 17, you may choose to sign up for either the Adult or Children's Winter Reading Club—but not both. To find out more about the Adult Winter Reading Club, please see the reverse side. You may sign up for the Children's Area Winter Reading Club at either the Hope Branch or the Main Library beginning Monday, January 18, 2010. You must report books read at the library where you registered. You will receive a free bookmark for signing up. Points will be earned for each book read.

Week 1 - Earn Up To 4 Points

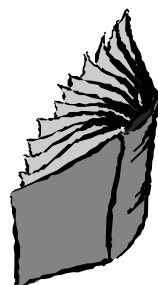

Week 2 - Earn 4 - 8 Points

Week 3 - Earn 4 - 12 Points

Week 4 - Earn 4 - 16 Points

Week 5 - Earn 4 - 20 Points

Week 6 - Earn 4 - 24 Points

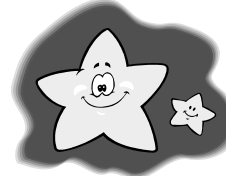

You must show library staff all books you have read to be awarded points. As you earn points, you may spend them to buy prizes. Prizes are available while supplies last and are subject to change due to availability. Some of the prizes that will be available include:

Spring Bracelets
Punch Ball
Compass

Rock Bouncy Ball
Fazoli's
Books

All points must be spent by Friday, February 26, 2010, the last day of the Reading Club.

Earning 24 points will complete the Reading Club. Upon earning 24 points, you will receive a free book bag.

For more information regarding programs associated with the Winter Reading Club, please pick up an events flyer at the Hope Branch or Main Library.
